Speaker:

Doug Tellin, Certified ARC Flash Consultant, Electrical Safety Specialists LLC

The first 13 years of Doug Tellin's career were spent as a master electrician, overseeing large commercial/industrial construction projects. In 2006, Doug took his enthusiasm to the next level by accepting a position overseeing field operations in ARC Flash Hazard Assessments and Safety Trainings for nearly 1,000 facilities around the world. Helping companies change their safety culture and maintain compliance with the latest standards and regulations became a true passion. In 2012, Doug joined Electrical Safety Specialists, which provides comprehensive engineering and training services in electrical safety.
