Tailgate Fun at the K

The weather did not dampen the spirits of these Electric League members. Kevin O'Neill, C&O Electric, brought the grill and the members brought the fun to the 4th Electric League Tailgate Party on May 3rd. Good times, good conversation and good food was had by all. A bonus to the event - the League brought the Royals luck and the good guys won 6-1.

Mike White (L), KC Electric Supply, former president and the first official griller of the Tailgate events had to check out if Andy Alexander, KCPL, current Electric League President had the right touch to grilling.

Selfie success!

A great group of people.

Well, Andy had the right approach for this tailgate. Kevin O'Neill, C&O Electric, provided the grill and the talent for our event. Mike's wondering, why he didn't think about that!
